Coach Notes

The 13th-ranked Oak Ridge Lady Wildcat Volleyball Team dropped a match to Farragut in three straight sets on Thursday night. "No team likes to have losing streaks and tonight was our third in a row," stated Head Coach David Kolodney. "But if there's such thing as a good loss then this was it. We started slowly in the first set but got better and better throughout the match all while using a brand new lineup." The current Wildcat road losing streak has been against non-district foes. "The things we talked about after our Heritage match were much better tonight and we'll learn from this and get better too," Kolodney continued referring to the team's Monday loss at Heritage High School. "Tonight, we took a good Farragut team to 30-28 in the third so we know we can win. We just have to put together the right match." The Wildcat's closed their regular season head-to-head match-ups with this loss, and will participate in their final tournament this Saturday hosted by Concord Christian. The District Playoff will be hosted by Oak Ridge on Tuesday 10/3.
